

LONG CLOTHS.

We have in all the grades from 10c. to 20c. Also fine cambrics at 10c., 12½c. and 15c. We have a special in fine cambric at 10c.

BLEACH COTTONS.

We still have a stock of our first purchase and as long as they last they go at old prices. A small quantity left of our drive at 7c.

CORSETS.

We have a fine selection of the new spring 1904 shapes. No old styles to work off, but brand new goods and American Lady brand.

A WHITE SALE.

We have a full line of goods for early sewing and it behooves the housewife to be making hay while the sun is not shining so when the weather is fit you can enjoy an outing in your automobile, carriage or afoot, which ever your vehicle happens to be. These are fine days to sew and we have all the necessities from a spool of thread to the finest linen.

SHIRT WAIST LINENS.

We have a big line of these pure linen goods and they are to be very much used on account of easy washing, and of course, never fade, but get prettier every time they are washed. They come in 36 inches, 40 inches, 54 inches, and 90 inches at 35c. to $1.50 per yard.

LACES AND EMBROIDERY.

We have by far the largest stock of these goods ever shown in Stanford and among them some special values worth more than we ask at the popular prices 5c. to 50c. We have a pattern for every taste.

Look out for another Big Sale.

Carson Room.

SEVERANCE & SON.
TWO STORES.

Leader Room.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAR. 4, 1904.

THIS spring we will have a full line of Mastic Mixed Paints, also a full line of Senour's Floor and Porch Paint. Come in and see our colors before you buy. Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

PERSONALS.

ERNEST CARTER is quite sick. BORN, to the wife of R. C. Hocker, a daughter.

MISS JEANE MCGUIRE is with friends in Richmond.

MRS. DR. R. L. DAVIDSON went to Louisville yesterday.

MR. J. A. SINGLETON, of Pleasant Point, was here Wednesday.

MARK HARDIN and C. E. Gentry went to Louisville Wednesday.

BORN, to the wife of Felix Brawner, of the Jumbo section, a 10-pound boy.

WILL SEVERANCE went to Louisville Wednesday to buy more goods.

JOHN W. MILLER, of Lancaster, was here Wednesday en route to Rockcastle.

FAYETTE WILKINSON, of Liberty, is here to assist in Ed Wilkinson's barber shop.

MR. J. B. CARTER, of Garrard, was here yesterday on his way to Louisville.

MR. N. B. PRICE, of Garrard, was the guest of his brother, Dr. A. S. Price.

MRS. C. C. WILLIAMS, of Mt. Vernon, was the guest of Mrs. M. C. Williams.

ED L. DUDDERAR is here from Birmingham to see his little son, who is very sick.

MR. AND MRS. ED CORNELISON, of Richmond, were with Mrs. McGuire last week.

MR. A. A. WARREN, of Middlesboro, was on yesterday's train bound for Louisville.

T. D. CARTER is down from Laurel to see his father, Mr. J. M. Carter, Sr., who is very ill.

MR. AND MRS. G. A. McROBERTS, of Covington, attended the burial of the former's father.

MRS. BELLE LAWHORN, of Yosemite, was here this week consulting Dr. R. A. Jones.

MR. E. D. KENNEDY, guard at the Lexington Asylum, was here Tuesday to see his family.

MISS DORA and MISS STRAUB left Tuesday for Louisville and Chicago to buy millinery.

MR. W. G. WITHERS went to Middlesboro Tuesday to take a position with Mr. G. A. Peyton.

MR. WM. SKIDMORE and wife went to Louisville Tuesday, where the former has secured a position.

MRS. P. W. GREEN, wife of the prominent horseman, P. W. Green, is seriously ill.—Lexington Democrat

MR. GEO. A. BENEDICT, of Washington county, who is visiting friends here, is down with a severe attack of grip.

COL. W. G. WELCH is doing as well as could be expected, although it was necessary to amputate two of the toes on his diseased foot yesterday.

MR. J. D. EADS, who bought Mr. J. H. McAllister's farm, has moved up from Wayne county to it. Our people are always glad to have such good citizens locate among them.

MR. GEO. P. BRIGHT, formerly of this county, but who is now connected with a big wholesale house and has his headquarters at Birmingham, Ala., is here mingling with old friends and relatives.

MISS ANNIE DUNN, Josie Warren and Alice Alcorn, of Stanford, and Miss Nancy Reed, of Danville, were introduced to the president by Representative Glibert. They were on their way to Philadelphia.—Washington dispatch to Courier-Journal.

HON. R. C. WARREN, of Lincoln county, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. Warren has filled many offices of honor and trust, including those of legislator, Commonwealth's attorney, master commissioner, etc., and is now a candidate for county judge, with a certainty, he thinks, of getting it.—Lexington Democrat.

LOCALS.

DON'T forget the embroidery sale at the Grand Leader.

I want to buy two No. 1 Jersey cows. They must be good butter makers and giving plenty of milk now. C. T. Bohon, Hustonville, Ky.

You can't beat Mueller's prices on fine cut glass.

T. C. BALL sold to Mr. L. L. St. Clair a cabin on the creek for $250.

No old styles, all new in this embroidery sale. Grand Leader.

MUELLER'S line of fine gold and gold filled watches larger than ever.

FOUR room cottage, good garden, bars, etc., for rent cheap. J. T. Jones.

JOHN THOMPSON'S show—"Around the World in 80 Minutes"—has been booked for May 7.

MR. ALVERSON has introduced a bill to enable counties to make annual subscriptions to hospitals.

J. C. MCCLARY is receiving a large stock of wagon harness, plow harness, buggy harness, etc. Call and see it.

DON'T lose your work and material by using cheap, sleazy embroideries. Ours belong to a different family altogether. John P. Jones.

JOHN COULTER, of Middleburg, has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Duncannon to McKinney. He will take charge of the line July 1.

I AM located at McKinney and am ready and willing to wait on the public to any kind of tombstone or monument. Get my prices on such work before you place your order. T. J. Teter.

MR. ANSEL BAUGH has sold his house on Somerset Street to Mr. Tram Conn, of Garrard, and will likely move to Illinois. Mr. Conn, who is one of the best citizens in his county, will move to the property soon.

A COTTAGE on Whitley Avenue, owned by Dr. J. F. Peyton and occupied by Mr. Hamilton, a railroad man, caught fire early Thursday morning but a bucket brigade extinguished the flames before much damage was done.

BANK FOR MCKINNEY.—An effort is being made to start a bank at McKinney. Mr. Collins, the Q & C agent, is the prime mover in the enterprise and we are told that he has placed nearly $10,000 of the proposed $15,000 capital stock.

BOUGHT A PLANTATION.—Mr. J. H. McAllister has bought a 1,300-acre cotton farm in Madison county, Miss., and he and his son, F. B. McAllister, will leave next week to look after it. His family will not move to their Southern home for a while.

OUR Hustonville letter tells of the death of Mr. Ben P. Hawkins at Corbin and the burial at Hustonville. Mr. Hawkins was a fine old gentleman and his death has caused sorrow wherever he was known. Two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Hawkins and Miss Sallie Hawkins, survive him.

A MELBOURNE dispatch says: John Alexander Dowle, of Zion City, Ill., has appealed to the American consul for protection. When the mob broke up his meeting Sunday he is said to have hidden three hours in the organ loft. Hereafter his meetings will be held behind locked doors.

WANTS DAMAGES.—Harvey Bishop, a Q. & C. fireman, has sued that company in the Fayette circuit court for $20,000. He alleges that he was firing on the second engine of a double header freight train and was suffocated in the King's Mountain tunnel, falling from the cab, breaking his leg, hip and back, from which she has been paralyzed ever since.

THE lecture by Mrs. Geo. Pickett at Walton's Opera House Tuesday evening was the closing one of the Stanford Lecture Association, and while all of the entertainers brought here by the gentlemen composing the association have been good, small houses have been the rule than the exception. As a consequence the loss sustained by them will amount to considerable, which is greatly regretted. Mrs. Pickett was presented to her audience by Judge M. C. Sanfley in a short, but splendid speech, and afterward she told in a pleasing way the interesting story of the civil war, in which her husband took such a prominent part. Mrs. Pickett is an exceedingly handsome and gifted woman and those who met her here fell deeply in love with her. She was given a reception by the Daughters of the Confederacy on Tuesday afternoon.

FOR SALE.—Good young gobler. T. A. Rice, Stanford.

10,000 YARDS of embroidery in this sale. Grand Leader.

THE stock of solid silver spoons, etc., select and prices right at W. H. Mueller's.

WE sell and fit to the hand the best $1 and $1.50 Ladies' Kid Glove on earth. John P. Jones.

WM. SHEPHERD, charged with murder, was placed in jail here by W. D. Quillen, sheriff of Letcher county, Wednesday night. He was brought here for safe-keeping.

OUR Tuesday's papers had not gotten to Hustonville at last accounts. May the good Lord have mercy on the postal clerks of the Q. & C.; we wouldn't if we had a show at them.

MARCH came in like a lamb but the windy month grew very lion-like yesterday morning when snow, rain and hail fell at the same time. Prospects are flattering for more cold weather.

THERE is to be a box supper at Fair View church Saturday night for the benefit of that church. Everybody cordially invited. No admission will be charged, but it is hoped that all who attend will bring boxes.

HORSE STOLEN.—Brown horse 15½ hands high, scar over left knee, hind feet white, branded "B" under mane, good saddle. Was ridden away by a man who gave his name as Clyde Twedie. Reasonable reward will be given for information leading to recovery of horse. Bruce & Carter, Stanford, Ky.

WILHITE.—Mrs. Pelitha Wilhite, the aged mother of Mr. Sam M. Wilhite, formerly of this place but now Controller of the city of Louisville, is dead at Monticello. The end came suddenly, although she had not been in good health for almost a year. She was 73 years old and belonged to one of the pioneer families of Wayne county. She is survived by four sons. Her husband died a number of years ago.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Tuesday and Wednesday were taken up with the trials of George Owens, Grant Salter and Geo. Harris, charged with assaulting Frank Richards, also colored, just after the November election, when it is claimed Richards did not vote to suit them. The first two named were given a year in the penitentiary but Harris was acquitted. John McCarty, Henry Pelman and Percy Stewart, indicted on the same charge, were dismissed.

Ben Harlan, for stealing a carpet from the Withers Furniture Co's store, was given 45 days in jail.

KRIGER.—Rev John Elder sold his farm to a Laurel county man for $750. Mrs. Clay Chappell is very low with pneumonia. Walter Anderson has been suffering from a severe attack of the mumps, but is able to be out again.

Mrs. James Collier has been suffering from a complication of troubles, but is convalescing. Mrs. Morgan Chappell is down with rheumatism. Mrs. Mahala Anderson and grand daughter, Miss Anna Dishon, of this place, are visiting the family of J. L. Anderson. Mr. Larkin Chumley and family, formerly of this place, but now of Fort Wayne, Ind., visited J. L. Anderson and family last week. Miss Effie Anderson left Wednesday for Fort Wayne, Ind. to visit her sister, Mrs. Larkin Chumley.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Gilbert Glass, of Glasgow, will preach at the Presbyterian church here Sunday morning and evening.

As a memorial to his wife, James R. Barret, of Henderson, has given $25,000 to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky. It will be used for library improvements.

Rev. W. M. Wood, pastor of the First Baptist church at Harrodsburg, has closed the second year's charge of the church. During the two years 163 members have been added and the present membership is 431.

A Houston, Texas, dispatch says: A church at Holland was taken possession of by a frenzied mob and Revs. Lurnage and Stradley were seriously injured. The expulsion of a leading member caused the trouble. Intense excitement prevails.

Net earnings of the United States Steel Corporation show a big falling off during the five months just ended.

HERE AND THERE.

Besides being one of the most disagreeable that ever happened, the February just closed had the distinction of being the longest since 1896.—Lexington Democrat.

The accounts of the Chicago World's Fair were closed Wednesday with the payment of a final dividend of 4.65 per cent. to all of the 2,000 stockholders, making a total of 14.65 per cent. returned in dividends.

Five persons were killed, 20 seriously injured and eight or 10 are missing, as the result of the collapse of the steel skeleton of the Hotel Darkington, a 13-story apartment house in course of construction in New York.

A report received at Shanghai, ostensibly from an official source at Tokio, says the Japanese have taken possession of the Russian telegraph line to Mladivostok, thus cutting off that place from the outside world. Information also comes from the same quarter that a considerable section of the Transiberian railway has been destroyed. There is no war movement at Port Arthur, according to advices received at St. Petersburg.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by G. L. Penny, druggist.

FOR SALE!

About 10,000 mill cull Red and White Oak lumber at J. M. Hiatt & Co's. mill, about 10 miles from Stanford, near the Somerset turnpike, will take $5.00 per thousand feet, board measure at mill. Mr. B. D. Hiatt will measure and receive check or cash for same.

J. H. COLLIER.
Crab Orchard, Ky.

BRUCE and CARTER,
Livery, Feed and Sale Stable,
Depot Street, STANFORD, KY.

Special attention to Commercial Men. Your patronage is solicited. Horses handled on commission.

Stock Pens in Connection.

Administrator's Sale!

As administrator of the estate of J. B. Murphy, deceased, I will, at his late residence near Powers, Casey county, Ky., on WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1904,

Publicly offer for sale the personal property belonging to the estate, consisting in part of nine head of weanling males, one 2-year-old male, one bay horse, four years old, one cow, three calves, six 100-lb. shoats, sow and pigs, one buggy and harness, one road cart, two 2-horse wagons, frame and bed for same and wagon harness, half-interest in mower and rake, some plows and farming tools, 15 or 20 barrels of corn. Sale will begin at 10 A. M. sharp.

Terms—$10 and under cash in hand, exceeding this sum, a credit of six months with approved personal security before the property is removed from premises.

T. F. MURPHY,
Administrator.

.. THIS IS A ..

Presidential Year and you must

KEEP POSTED

The way to do this is to read the WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL, Henry Watterson, Editor. Twelve pages. Issued every Wednesday.

$1 A YEAR.

Ravenue Reform, Social Reform, Moral Reform. The Courier-Journal issues the best Almanac published. Send 50c for a copy by mail. COURIER-JOURNAL CO., Louisville, Ky. By a special arrangement you can get the

INTERIOR JOURNAL

and the WEEKLY COURIER-JOURNAL both one year for only $1.50.

Custom Tailoring

SUITS TO MEASURE.

One thousand Samples of Choice Woolens for Spring.

Fit Guaranteed.

Cummins & McClary.

ULTRA AND BROCKPORT

Fine Footwear
FOR LADIES.

Our stock is now in and we are able to show you, we think the newest line of Slippers and Shoes we have ever had. The styles we think are beautiful. The quality you all know is the best. See them in our windows.

Terms Cash. H.J.M'Roberts.

COME

And see this before you buy. You get in this a slack, or coke, or trash burner. It is an Air-tight Hot Blast combined. Too much can not be said for a Stove like this.

Geo. H. Farris & Co.,
Stanford, Ky.

Crix and Panic.

GREAT GAMES.

—AT—

W. N. CRAIG, Pharmacist,

(Successor to Craig & Hocker.

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.